Lowell Trade High School

Lowell Vocational School

1960

Dedication

Miss Margaret E. McCann.

The fourth edition of THE KEY, official chronicle of the class of 1960, is affectionately dedicated to our principal's assistant, Miss Margaret E. McCann.

During the past forty one years Miss McCann has been the friend and counselor to thousands of boys and girls who entered the portals of the old school on Broadway and our present facilities downtown. She has been synonymous with Vocational Education in Lowell all these years, and unquestionably played a major role in its growth and development. Her retirement this year will leave a void that will be impossible to fill.

We, the members of the class of 1960, feel extremely fortunate to have had the benefit of her advice, counsel, and friendship. Our sincere best wishes to you, Miss McCann, for many years of continued good health, happiness, and contentment. You may be out of sight, but never out of our hearts.

With your graduation from our schools, there is a bright future ahead for you if you use it as you have been trained. May this future be a happy one for each of you and may you always remain the good citizens that you are today.

The Faculty and I wish you success and happiness. We hope you will always remember these words of Shakespeare, "Let all the ends thou aims't at be thy Country's, thy God's and truth's."

Class Will

To The Classes:

We, the class of 1960, being of sound mind, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

To the Juniors we leave our charm, mental ability, and the key to success, so they may have as prosperous a year as we did.

To the Sophomores we leave a bottle of Vitamin Pills so they will have the strength to complete their next two years.

To the Freshmen we leave a year supply of Fluffy Diapers so they may remain carefree and gay.

Bob Taylor, Ray Toupin, Nancy Bourgeois, and Helen Norcross leave their friendly dispositions.

Dennis Walsh, Lester Waterhouse and Sheila Snee, leave!!

Francis Juscak, Paul Malone, and Tony Modeski leave their bowling skills to George Pappas and anyone else who wants to lose.

Doris Isabelle and Dorothy Street leave in a hurry!

Rita Racette and Dianne Dumont leave their brownie recipes.

Beverly Beaumont and Janet Lamoureux leave their places of cheering to anyone who can do as fine a job as they did.

Janet and Joan DeLuca leave together.

Shirley Diamantopoulos and Frank Zorojewski leave the ability to spell their names.

Omer Beland leaves his glasses to any underclassman who has the gall to wear them.

Louis Courtemanche and Ed Courtermarche leave their height to Don Perry.

Ed McGovern leaves his diet, which he never used, to Mr. Hayes.

Richard Noval, George Prive, and Norman Jussaume leave their muscles to the Freshmen so they will have the strength for the next three years.

George Drolet and Michael Morrison leave their red hair to George Richardson (the custodian) for his mops.

Dick Neault and George Ralls leave the answers to all the science tests to any future Senior who wants to take the life of Riley.

Joe Vail leaves his way with the girls to Joe Giza.

George Sullivan and Theresa Marion leave their ability to spell to the Dear Sophomores.

Rita Brien and Lillian Tanguay leave their places in front of the mirror to anyone who thinks they need it.

Teddy MacLeod, Joe Rogers, and Betty Brooks leave as quietly as they entered.

Russell Adams and Bob Anderson leave their ability to be quiet in Mr. Foye's class.

Norman Bouchard and Joe Boucher leave their shyness to anyone who wants to be unknown.

John Janeska leaves his famous book "Modern Ways To Sideswipe Cars" to Tom Kennon.

Good luck!

Janet Lamoureux, Larry Smith, Bob Janco, and Martin Storch leave their many extra pounds to Mr. Lavoie.

Peter Turcotte and Chuck Powers leave their friendship of Mr. Brox to Al Perry and Dave Blodgett.

Bill McDonald and Dick Gadbois leave their sleeping chairs in Mr. Gacek's room.

John Kenney, Pete Nassios, Bob Brick, and Bob Faulcon leave their scummy overalls.

Peter Astorian and Bob Lynch leave their familiar smiles.

Ricky Freitas and Ronald Turgeon leave their "Tiny Tear Dolls"

Roger Cloutier and Bob Lyddy leave their vast knowledge of fish stories.

Henry Laporte and Mil Maille just leave Mr. Brox as quickly as possible.

Ray Robitaille and Ronnie Lewis leave their height to any underclassmen who has not yet grown up.

Walt Carty leaves his swing to anyone who has a porch for it.

Paul Cayer, Priscilla Lorrey, and Deborah Rodgers leave the thought of Graduating.

Skip Farley leaves a needle and thread to any future broken hearted Senior.

Roland Gervais and Gerry Goddu leave to some underclassmen their extra credits???

Roland Gosselin and Nelson Guy leave their mischievous acts to anyone who would like a week's vacation now and then.

Bob Demers leaves to Mr. Moloney the memories of our freshman year.

John Kenney, Dick Lafortune, and Norman Landry leave with all their noise behind.

Paul Lambert, Dale Lobsien, Charley Lumbard, and Tom Malay leave with their vast knowledge they have accumulated.

Jim Morin, Pete Millinazzo, Charlie Morrison, and Tom McCoy leave their attempts to have a smoke to anyone who would be crazy enough to try.

Liz Marr and Henriette Duhamel leave the "Betty Crocker Award" to Miss Hamblet, for aiding in the development of the future homemakers.

Diane Dube, Carol Dunn, and Priscilla Fierley leave their charm.

Gloria Cloutier, Elaine Laflamme, and Julie Beaudoin give up gladly their curlers and scissors.

Joyce "Andy" Fortier leaves her shape to any deserving soul.

Aline Millette, Lorraine Gregoire, and Diane Desjardines leave Miss Liston happily.

We all leave Mr. Collins and Miss Connors with just one loud "THANKS".

Class Song

Tune of: "If I Give My Heart To You"
Lester Waterhouse

-1-

When we leave these two great schools,
We will know the golden rules,
And we'll always think with faithfulness,
Of the Teachers at the school.

-2-

As we go our separate ways,
We'll remember happy days.
With the hope that they'll inspire in us;
Goals that will be glorious.

-3-

And now we leave,
So sad and alone.
Each sigh, each tear is shown,
We wish we could be together once more.

-4-

Now the time to leave is here,
As we finish up the year.
We will always remain true to you,
Lowell Trade High School.

Class Ode

Tune of: "Have You Ever Been Lonely?"
Janet DeLuca

-1-

Farewell to Lowell Trade School,
We bid you adieu;
We will always remember the gold and blue,
The place where we learned the golden rules,

-2-

Our hearts reveal,
Just the way we feel,
To all of the Teachers fond thanks we give you,
For lessons you taught us, so fine and true.
Oh! How we'll recall the time that we have spent in school!
Beginning September,
And ending in June.

Basketball

The team came in 2nd place for the year with an 8-4 record for league competition and an 8-11 record for all games played. The boys got a bad start but didn't lose their spirit, for they won the last 8 out of 9 games they played. Due to their fine spirit, at the end of the season there were more fans, and more spirit spread throughout the school. Some even rubbed off on to the teachers, for at the end of the season the teachers faced the varsity team. It was a screaming victory for the teachers. The score was 26 for the varsity team and 11 for the teachers. Although they didn't walk away with the game, they walked away with the laughs. That's what I call spirit!

Jr. Varsity, bottom row: Bruce Wilen, Walter Laflame, Tom Kenyon, Donald Dubois, Brian Britton, second row: Joe Vail - coach, David Tibbetts, Albert Leduc, David Grant, James Lachance, Robert McOsker.

Prophecy

Dear L. T. H. S. Underclassmen:

Just a little note to tell you about our four years at L.T.H.S. It was not all play, but quite a bit of work.

We started out in High School just as green as you were, but look how we turned out. You can do the same too, if you'll follow in our footsteps.

As we stepped on to the prison grounds, we were suddenly faced with a large group of upperclassmen who gently smeared us with shoe polish of all colors and odors.

We all survived our first year and went back as Sophomores. We lost Leo Cambray, Jim Clark, Jim Labranche, Joe Cabana and Al Bevins. We also lost Mr. Collins for six months. Our substitute was Mr. Leahy, who finished out the year. Mr. Gacek was teaching Math, then he left Math class to teach Science. Mr. Sarmiento took over our Math class and nearly everyone got "A" that marking period. Then Uncle Sam took him away. A permanent teacher was then assigned to our cell. Of course, you all know it was Mr. Walsh.

Finally we were JUNIORS and became upperclassmen. This was the year we elected Mr. Collins as our class advisor and we also ordered our class rings. For the first time we had class officers. Joe Vail was elected president; Richard Noval, secretary; Paul Bergeron, vice-president and Louie Courtemache elected treasurer. Everyone remembers the turkey raffle and Boston Ballroom.

After slaving throughout that year we became the best known inmates, "the SENIORS", being watched upon by the warden. Mr. C. P. Conlon.

Our senior class picked up where every other class had left off. Memories such as the "Senior Prom" were made possible by our advisor, Mr. Collins. Everything we did was a success. The class gift, a sign, a beautiful sign, a gorgeous sign, was presented to the school in the middle of our Senior year. At last! The biggest of all, our PROM. Everyone enjoyed themselves at the graduation party. Last of all, came graduation, the biggest the school ever had. On June 21, 1960 we were granted our diplomas which we so nobly earned. Looking back we realize now that it was not a prison, but a heaven full of devils.
